

Martin Gignac, M.D. - Biography

Dr. Martin Gignac obtained his medical degree from McGill University in 1998 and completed his training in psychiatry at the Université de Montréal in 2003. He completed a fellowship in pediatric psychopharmacology at Massachusetts General Hospital, an affiliate of Boston's Harvard Medical School in the United States in 2003-2005.

He has since been working as psychiatrist at the adolescents unit of the Institut Philippe-Pinel de Montréal, where he is also head of the outpatient clinic for severe disruptive disorders in adolescence. In addition, he has been involved in several studies and published numerous articles and book chapters in the field of pediatric psychopharmacology.

Dr Gignac is speaking at "The Many Faces of ADHD: A Window into the Future", CADDRA's 2010 Annual Conference which will be held from November 20-21, "2010, Vancouver, British Columbia