

Candice Murray, Ph.D. - Biography

Dr. Candice Murray is a registered psychologist who works in the Provincial ADHD Program at B.C Children's Hospital and has a part-time private practice with a focus on clients with ADHD. Dr. Murray has a longstanding interest in children and adults who struggle with attention deficits.

Dr. Murray pursued her masters and doctoral degree at the University of British Columbia where her research focused on family functioning and ADHD. More recently, Dr. Murray has been interested in the challenges that parents with ADHD experience when raising their children and in group therapy for adults with ADHD.

Dr Murray is speaking at "The Many Faces of ADHD: A Window into the Future", CADDRA's 2010 Annual Conference which will be held from November 20-21, "2010, Vancouver, British Columbia